Hallgarten & Company: Think Piece

Copper- Going Ballistic “Weaponising” the Red Metal

Hot Chili (ASX:HCH) (“Hot Chili” or “Company”) is pleased to provide a research article on Copper by Hallgarten & Company, as published 30th October 2018.

The article showcases Hot Chili’s Productora project as one of a handful of new major global suppliers to come on line before 2025.

This research coincides with the anticipated resurgence in copper price, with delays to projects and damage to financing prospects leading to a strengthening copper price outlook for the future due to likely supply restraints.
